

Biography

Rene Ojebah is a member of the Brunswick House First Nation, and was born in Chapleau Ontario. He has attended Chapleau Public School and Chapleau High school. Rene is a self-taught Artist and has created the Brunswick House Community Logo and numerous Logos throughout Northern Ontario. He has studied Art at the White Mountain Academy of the Arts in Elliot Lake Ontario from 1998-2002. Rene had also attended Algoma University, studying Fine Arts in Sault Ste. Marie Ontario from 2005-2008. Rene was elected Chief of the Brunswick House First Nation in 2008-2011. Rene is continuing with his art and craft-work. Rene is presently doing Hand-Drum making workshops with his partner at local High schools in the Sault Ste. Marie area.